KLANG formed two years ago when Donna Matthews and Isabel Waidner MET Japanese drummer Keisuke Hiratsuka in a second-hand record shop in London.

Released on CD and Vinyl, the self-produced 'NO SOUND IS HEARD' album, features NINE brand new tracks and is the follow up to the London trio's brilliant debut single 'I.o.v.e./'No Thing' on the For Us/Rough Trade Shop label in May 2003.

KLANG played a handful of shows in and around the capital with the likes of ESG, SLEATER-KINNEY, WIRE and ELECTRELANE and released the aforementioned debut single 'I.o.v.e.' as a limited edition 7" shortly after.

A TRULY ORIGINAL group, Klang were attracting attention from all over the country and in the summer set off on a U.K. tour with Erase Errata and featured on the Sonic Mook 'Hot Shit' compilation with one of the album's stand out tracks 'Outside My Area'.
